

On March 8, 2007, Speaker Nancy Pelosi established the Select Committee on Energy Independence and Global Warming. I am proud to have been chosen by the Speaker to serve on this committee.

Chaired by Representative Edward Markey (D-MA), the Select Committee is responsible for investigating the causes of climate change and developing recommendations for policies, to reduce US dependence on foreign sources of energy.

For more information about the Select Committee, visit their website.