WASHINGTON – Congressman John B. Larson (CT-01) released the following statement today applauding the thousands of Americans who have taken to the streets in New York and around the country for a more fair and equitable nation:

“In New York and across the country, thousands of Americans have taken to the streets, certain of the morality of their message: bringing fairness to Main Street.

“The silent masses aren't so silent anymore. They are fighting to give voice to the struggles that everyday Americans are going through. “While I don't condone their every action, I applaud their standing up for what they believe in.

“Now is the time for Congress to act to create jobs and provide hope to those whose courage of conviction takes them to the streets.”
